

All tuning, calibration, thresholds, and diagnostics use source-region data only; held-out regions are reserved for evaluation.